

CSGA STANDING RULES

As of 15 October 2011

I) GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. These Standing Rules constitute the operating procedures of the California State Genealogical Alliance (hereafter referred to as “the Alliance”). In no instance shall they supersede or override any provisions of the bylaws of the Alliance. Any Standing Rule maybe suspended for any specified period by a majority vote at any regular or special meeting of the Executive Board either in person or via email consensus.

2. A Standing Rule can be modified, added or deleted by a vote of the Executive Board members present at any regular meeting or by a majority vote of the Executive Board members present if notice of the proposed action was given at a previous meeting, in the newsletter, or via email. Standing Rules can also be modified, added or deleted by an electronic vote of the Executive Board members. Record of such written or verbal consent shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board and must be ratified by the Board at the next meeting.

3. A copy of these rules shall be available in the public access area on the Alliance’s website (www.csga.com), in a format that can be viewed, downloaded and printed from any computer (Mac or PC). If a rule is under suspension, it shall be so noted on this copy. Members without access to the internet may have a copy of these rules mailed to them, upon written request with a self-addressed stamped envelope.

4. A list of standing and special committee chairmen shall be kept in the public access area on the Alliance’s website in a format that can be viewed, downloaded and printed from any computer (Mac or PC). Members without access to the internet may have a copy of these rules mailed to them, upon written request with a self-addressed stamped envelope.

II) MEMBERSHIPS

1. The process of joining the CSGA is to complete an application in writing or electronically, indicating desired membership category, and submitting fees per the following fee structure:
